INTRODUCTION.

Before the reader is the sixteenth volume of the VITAL RECORD OF RHODE ISLAND, which we think will prove fully as interesting as the other volumes of the series. From the Providence newspapers, United States Chronicle and Providence Semi-Weekly Journal we print in this volume the Marriages A to Z, having printed the Deaths, the former in Vol. XV, and the latter in Vols. XII and XIII, The American Journal, Impartial Observer, and Providence Journal. The Deaths and Marriages are complete in this volume.

The General Assembly have again in their wisdom and judgment extended to this volume their usual courtesy. The favors heretofore extended us by the officers in charge of the newspapers have again been renewed to us. Our thanks are due to all these officers and to our friends for all the favors we have received and trust our conduct will be such as to merit their continuance in the future.

Please bear in mind that the dates herein given if preceded by the name of the Newspaper means that the Marriage or Death is announced in that issue, otherwise the real date of the event is given.

It is gratifying in one sense of the term if not in another to be able to announce that our six earlier volumes containing the Vital Records of the Towns and Cities of the State have become so scarce as to be held at a premium hereafter.

We close by trusting the reader will find his usual pleasure while perusing this our latest volume.

The United States Chronicle

Political, Commercial and Historical.

This was the full title of the second paper established by Bennett Wheeler in Providence. The price was nine shillings per year. It was published on the "west side of the river next door to Mr. Jacob Whitman." The first number was issued Thursday, Jan. 1, 1784. It was the same size as the "American Journal" (4 pages, 12 columns).

Feb. 21, 1793, he left off "Political, Commercial and Historical" from his title and set "The United States Chronicle" in a new letter and added in outline the arms of the State and the United States, retaining four columns instead of three, making the columns so much narrower. Jan. 7, 1796, he returned to the three columns as before, but May 19 of the same year went back to his four columns again.

Oct. 3, 1784, and forward the publication day was Wednesday; Jan. 6, 1785, and forward Thursday. Jan. 5, 1786, he first showed in outline the arms of the United States and the State on his title.

When Thursday was Thanksgiving Friday was publication day except in two instances when it was Wednesday.

During its career it had several locations. As before stated he commenced "Next door to Jacob Whitman's." July 1, 1784, it was published at Fenner's Corners opposite the Market; July 13, 1786, in Westminster street opposite Theodore Foster's, Esq.; June 14, 1792, in Market House Chambers; Sept. 29, 1796, in Westminster street, a few rods westward of the Great Bridge; Sept. 19, 1799, Westminster street, near the Great Bridge; Aug. 1, 1800, No. 1 Westminster street; March 4, 1801, No. 4 same street; May 7, 1801, four doors westward of the Exchange Bank, Westminster street.

March 29, 1804, he removes his personal advertisement at head of first column first page to the bottom of the last column on the last page.

Nov. 3, 1803, Mr. Wheeler retires from the business and offers at this time a house to let on High street opposite the Meeting House.

Jan. 5, 1804, John Wheeler, his eldest son, is proprietor, and so remained until its last number, May 17, 1804.

Of the files of this newspaper that of the Historical Society is now in seven bound volumes. The Providence Journal had a set in three volumes presented them by the late Charles J. Wheeler, broken, dating from Jan. 1, 1789, to Dec. 25, 1800. This later file is now in custody of the Historical Society. Brown University Library has broken numbers. From these we have been able to see the complete set.

Mr. Wheeler took a pride in book work and several of his jobs in this line are now in existence which showed very good work and taste in the printing line.

DEATHS

THE AMERICAN JOURNAL

THE AMERICAN JOURNAL AND GENERAL ADVERTISER was founded by Solomon Southwick and Bennett Wheeler, the first number appearing on Thursday, March 18, 1779. The printing office was located at the corner of North Main and Meeting streets. The paper was the same size as the Providence Gazette, but carried three columns to a page. May 3, 1780, and ending September 27, of same year, its publication day was Wednesday, Oct. 5 Thursday and Oct. 14, 1780, Saturday, and so remained until its discontinuance.

The paper ran three years. With Number 157 it was announced it would hereafter be a semi-weekly, appearing Wednesday and Saturday, but this did not mature. Instead Mr. Wheeler printed a new paper under a new title.

The paper carried a motto with the commencement of the second volume, taken from Addison's Cato: "A day, an hour, of virtuous LIBERTY is worth a whole eternity in bondage." From Oct. 14, 1780, to Jan. 24, 1781, a Continental Frigate was in the center of the title.

The price was $5 for six months, payable at time of subscription.

Aug. 16, 1780, the Editor says he and the office have done military duty, so August 2 and 9 were not printed. In No. 38 the printing office is announced as removed from the house of Capt. John Updikes to the store of Mr. Thomas Jones, next door but one to the sign of Gen. Washington on the west side of the Great Bridge.

With No. 38 (Dec. 2, 1779,) Bennett Wheeler appears as sole proprietor.

Of these 156 numbers we have seen all but six numbers, viz. : 1, 2, 16, 35, 105, 152.

The
Providence Journal

DEATHS

THE PROVIDENCE JOURNAL.

THE PROVIDENCE JOURNAL AND TOWN AND COUNTRY ADVERTISER was a weekly paper published on Wednesday by John Carter, Jr., at the new Printing Office, west side of the Great Bridge, Providence. Terms $2.00 per year.

It was a 4-page sheet with 4 columns to a page, and some larger than the "Observer" or the "Gazette."

The first number was dated Wednesday, Jan. 2, 1799.

Early the announcement was made that as soon as patronage would warrant it would be a semi-weekly, at not more than $3.00 per year.

April 17, under the title was added "Printer of the Laws of the United States for the State of Rhode Island, &c" and the Editor announces that half of the sheet will be devoted to the Laws.

After Oct. 2, it was only a half-sheet until its discontinuance Dec. 30, 1801.

Of these papers we have seen all but No. 78, (June 25, 1801).

MARRIAGES

PROVIDENCE JOURNAL.

The present series of newspapers known as the "PROVIDENCE JOURNAL" began with an issue on January 3, 1820, and has been published semi-weekly on Monday and Thursday until the present time.

On July 21, 1829, the Daily Journal was established. The numbers of the Daily from July 21 to December 31 are not on file, but the file commences with January 1, 1830. The file of the Semi-weekly in the Journal office is not complete nor is that of the Historical Society, but with the aid of the two we have been enabled to make up a complete file from which this record has been obtained.

The Deaths covering this period (Jan. 3, 1820, to Dec. 31, 1829), were published from letters A to R in Vol. XII of this work and letters S to Z in Vol. XIII to which the reader is referred.
